FOREWORD:

The theme of the 1969 Tontoquonian is a day in progress. September was the dawn of our senior year, our senior year, just a moment in our lives. It was a year filled with challenges, with achievements to attain, honors to win, goals to reach. In the afternoon of the year we began to realize what S.H.S. did mean to us; we discovered the true value of friends and the significance of our education. We waited in anticipation of the sunset of our year . . . graduation . . . and now look forward to the sunrise of all our tomorrows.

ACTIVITIES.....

SPORTS.....

SENIORS

A classroom has a unique significance for each of us. We learned . . . we left. Empty they stand as mute memories.

SACHEM LIFE

Classes . . . homework . . . study . . . tests . . .
all part of daily life. But we found time to contemplate, to help each other . . .

... to talk with others,

and to make friends.

Robert J. Munnelly
Superintendent of Schools

TO THE CLASS OF 1969:

As the chief administrator of schools during your Senior year, one of my genuine pleasures will be to join with you in the many activities that bring your Saugus school career to a close. This is the year that you reap the rewards and praise for the long years of hard and honest effort. Honors and glory, awards and commendations will come to you as individuals and as members of teams. You will be justifiably proud of your own accomplishments.

Another group, though, will bask in the glow of your achievements. Your teachers from elementary and junior and senior high school, the principals of these schools, the custodians, clerks and cafeteria workers who serve you without your knowledge of their efforts—these people have been following your career to this point and will continue to keep track of you through the sports pages, the society pages and the headlines in the years ahead. They are proud of you.

They know that you and your generation will be the leaders in the 21st Century. It is their wish that you have the knowledge and skill to build a better world than this one you inherit from older generations.

The awards and honors that you will garner in Senior year activities provide a sense of hope and a feeling of confidence to those of us who staff the schools and who were part of your early education. May you have success, happiness and good fortune as you "build that better world".

FACULTY

Robert J. Fraser
Principal

To the Members of the Class of 1969,

Mark Twain once said, "When some men discharge an obligation you can hear the report for miles around."

You, the Class of 1969, are approaching a period of life replete with obligations. You will have more intense obligations to yourselves in that you must now either shoulder the responsibilities of a daily work program or the disciplines of advanced study. The problems and needs of the country, state, and town will soon be a more vital concern. Some of you may take on the rigors of military life. Whatever direction your goals may lead, the obligations will be overwhelming.

It is my hope that your stay at Saugus High School has given you the ingredients to stand up to these obligations so that your report may be heard for miles around.

I wish you only the best things that this our complicated society may bring, and I know that you will bring honor to Saugus High School.

Most sincerely,

Robert J. Fraser

Another Clipper bites the dust.

The Saugus Sachems started off the season poorly. They lacked an offense, scoring only 32 points in their first 5 games. Their only win was a 6-2 victory over Woburn. The Swampscott game marked the turn of the season. Against Swampscott they fought for 32 points, although they still lost. The Sachems then exploded for 3 straight victories ending the season with four wins, five losses.

Thanksgiving Game

Saugus came to undefeated Peabody determined to win. A hard hitting defense allowed the Sachems to jump off to a 14 to 0 lead at half time. At the beginning of the third period Peabody drove into Sachem territory, but the Sachems held them at the one yard line. The Sachems scored one more before Peabody could even get onto the score board. The game ended 24 to 14 for the greatest victory of the season!

Class of Sixty-nine

To the Class of Sixty Nine,
Your most important and exciting year is contained in this book. I hope that it has helped you recall this year and has been successful in providing memories.

In order to publish this book the help of many individuals was needed. My special thanks are extended to the five co-editors: Carolyn McNeill, Lisa Moses, James Armstrong, Jeanne Siraco, Roxanna Savary. Most appreciated is the invaluable aid received from Mr. Bill Rowan, L. G. Balfour Company; Mr. Guy Quartarone, Lincoln Studios; and Miss Helen F. Towle, Tontoquonian advisor.

Sincerely,
June Grasso
